Darry,

You just don't know how much I really do love you. I have enjoyed this past year and a half more than anyone can tell. We have had such good times together.

I have really enjoyed the times that we have double dated and Triple dated. It has been the most wonderful experience I will ever have. You are a sweet, nice and wonderful person. Your ambition is great and I hope you will succeed in your job. I hope you will fill this job with ^{the} highest ability you have to offer. Work hard and show Mr. Register that you have the ability to make an excellent partner.

I will never forget last year when we went with your Sunday School class to White Lake. I really did enjoy myself with Jerry and Beverly.

We have had over our share of arguments and disagreements but somehow things always seem to work out. I hope that we will never have another one, because I can't get along without you. You are part of my life now and I hope it will stay that way. You have made me the happiest person in the world when we go somewhere and people see us together. You are wonderful to me.

I can always say that you are a nice, sweet and wonderful boy and I hope you will

THE ACORN 1964

Bless you in everything

EDITOR'S MESSAGE . . .

"There is a time in human affairs when grave anxiety is a whisper in every heart. A time when, if it were possible to bring all of our millions of people together in one huge town meeting, nearly all would find that we share one hope, day and night--one fear."

--Gabriel Heatter

We are living in such a time as this today. The love of our country is sometimes overshadowed by our fears of the cold war and the crises that arise. It is because of these times that "Patriotism" has been chosen as the theme for the 1964 ACORN.

We hope that this yearbook will serve to remind you of your American heritage and your freedoms as Americans, as well as your school memories.

DEDICATION

MRS. CYNTHIA ADAMS

"We must give patriotism a vitality which will find expression in service."

--Thomas R. Marshall

Just as there have been great leaders of our country, there are also great leaders in our school. We dedicate the 1964 ACORN to one whose loyalty to the student body and many years of unfaltering service have instilled in us the drives to secure more knowledge.

Thomas Paine once wrote "These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman,"

The foundation of our nation's greatness has always lain in the education of her people in the traditions of liberty. This liberty does not come without effort. Ours is the grave responsibility of keeping our country free. We might well heed the words of the late President John F. Kennedy, "ASK NOT WHAT YOUR COUNTRY CAN DO FOR YOU - ASK WHAT YOU CAN DO FOR YOUR COUNTRY."

ADMINISTRATION

"Walk into schools and universities-and if you find teachers who are free to teach, and pupils who are free to inquire-you will know that you are very likely in America."

--Author Unknown

ADMINIS

Our school, just as our country, must have able leaders if it is to make available to us the guidance so important as we grow into the citizens of tomorrow. Our school leaders guide us as we strive to obtain an understanding of the world around us and an understanding of our great heritage. It is through their wise counsel and guidance that we are prepared to enter the adult world, to join the ranks of our fellow citizens, and to accept the responsibilities set before us by our great leaders of yesterday.

CAMPUS SCENES

Homecoming brings the crowning of a new queen.

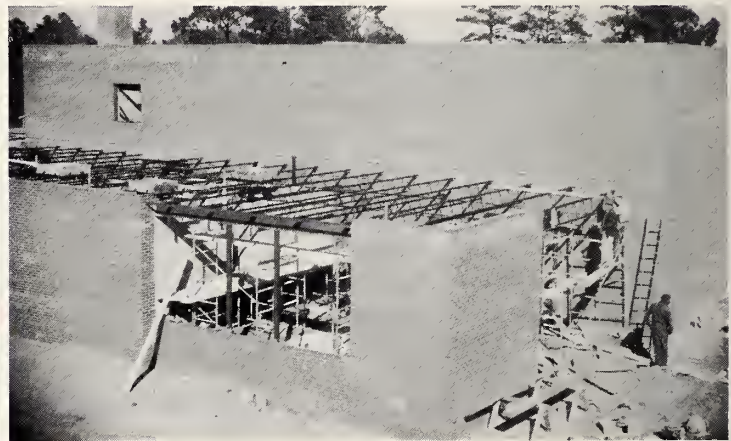

The snack shop serves as a welcome morning break.

Another goal is made at one of the last games in our old gym.

Mr. Beeker lectures on the Civil War display assembled by last year's juniors.

Students can easily see the daily progress being made on the new gym.

The concession stand serves as a welcome addition to the game.

The seniors have a Christmas party before the holidays.

The classrings finally come, much to the joy of the seniors.

ORGANIZATIONS

"If he is free to belong to such fraternal organizations and clubs as he wishes, then he is an American."

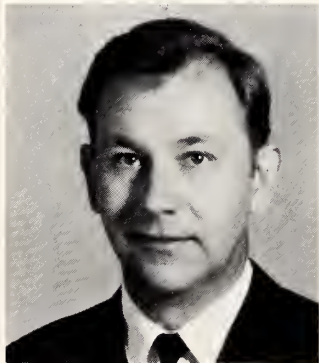

--The New York Sun

Like our government, our school has many organizations. They make it possible for students to fulfill their interests in various areas and help them to develop characteristics that they will need as good citizens.

VARSITY SQUAD

Respected opinions ring forth the praises of the Four Oaks Junior Varsity Football squad. The progress made by these boys seems quite promising for future champions.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Basketball, being the only sport offered in our school for girls, attracts many participants. Not only do those who make the varsity squad enjoy playing the game, but they also learn the importance of dignity, cooperation, leadership, and hard work through experience and team work. Many hours of labor are put into each contest, but the results are always satisfying when each girl has done her best.

Girls practice for the peak of perfection.

Expectancy reigns as the highest jump may result in a possible two-pointer.

Mr. Graham fills the girls in on the winning techniques.

This year the boys' varsity basketball team had the smallest squad ever. After it was organized, Four Oaks had a team of fairly equalized players. The will and desire to win was great on this year's team.

Looks like another point for Robey!

You all the way, in everything you &
Peggy Sue attempt to do. (Let me drive make a crack at the bank.)

Serious now, everyone thinks you are a grand old guy and you have a girl

watch out for wooden nickels; they cost
$4 to make them.
